

Year 2 Newsletter

21/11/16

Hello Everyone,

As you can see next week is annual Road Safety awareness week. Some of our children have already done Road Safety training with Carole Hatt who is our Road Safety Adviser, the rest will be doing the training over the next couple of weeks.

Weekly Expectations

English

Next week we will be continuing the David William's book 'The First Hippo on the Moon'. We will be doing research about the moon and what it is like. The outcome will be a piece of writing describing the moon. Can you find any information about the moon to share at school?

Maths

We will be continuing multiplication, repeated addition and arrays.

Can you learn your 5 times table off by heart? Can you answer questions like $5 \times 3 = ?$ How many 5s in fifteen?

Homework

Stars!

Chocolate and Christmas gift Raffle

We are holding a non-uniform day on Friday 25th November. The children can dress in their everyday clothes in return for a chocolate and mince pies/Christmas snacks or prize donations for the Christmas shop and raffle.

School Council Blog Our school councillors have their own blog which they update about their projects, don't forget to have a look and see what they have been doing.

Parent Pop-ins

Our next pop-in which is on Monday 21st November at 3pm. You should have received an invitation if it is your turn to come along. If this day is not convenient, please speak to the class teacher and you can come on Thursday next time.

Admissions to Junior School.

Transfer to Lacey Gardens is not automatic. You have to apply via the Lincolnshire Admissions site. Here is the link which you will also find on our website.
